II ESTATE EJECTMENT SUIT.

EVERY ALLEGATION IN THE NUTTING CASE DENIED.

Demurrer by the Government in the Kapiolani Estate Action—Defendants Declared in Default.

Judge Humphreys was engaged all of yesterday in hearing the ejectment suit of the John H. Nutting vs. A. B. Judd, wife of the late Chief Justice. After hearing the evidence the court late in the afternoon inspected the premises in litigation which comprise a little over an acre.

Arguments in the case will probably be heard at the session of the court this morning.

Each and every allegation made by L. B. Nutting in the action brought by him against the Henry R. Worthington Company is denied by that Company.

In the matter of the estate of Joseph K. Nutting, deceased, a petition to remove administratrix, it has been stipulated that the matter will be heard on Friday July 13, 1900.

In the case of the Kapiolani Estate Ltd., plaintiff vs. Territory of Hawaii defendant, Attorney General Dole has filed a demurrer on the grounds that the court has no jurisdiction; that the complaint is ambiguous, etc.; that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

In the case of Cecil Brown, plaintiff vs. Akanaillili, Yee Chin and Wo Sing & Co., the defendants have been declared in default by Judge Humphreys.

William Haywood has taken his oath as attorney. It was administered by Chief Justice Fear.

Judge Humphreys has appointed Mrs. Augusta Bell administratrix of the estate of J. M. Camara, deceased. The estate is valued at $2,000.

AMUSEMENTS.

There was a masterful presentation by James Neill and the Neill company of C. Haddon Chamber's play of "Captain Swift," at the Opera House last night.

Neill has appeared as Captain Swift hundreds of times in many large cities of the United States. Some people call Swift a robber, others call him an unfortunate, while Marshall, Mrs. Seabrook's butler, calls him something worse, for which Swift promptly knocks him down. Swift has been unfortunate by birth and more fortunate by disposition than thousands of others who claim a prouder ancestry; at least it appears so when he is impersonated by an artist like Neill. One's heart goes out to Neill's Captain Swift.

To mention any of the remainder of the cast that appeared last evening would be but to praise all. The final performances of the company are now beginning. While the houses have been good, they should be packed at all times.

Saturday afternoon there will be the only matinee that the company will give. The play will be the organization's greatest hit here, "A Bachelor's Romance," at which special matinee prices will be given.

The Manna Loos from Kona and Kauai ports yesterday brought many passengers and a large cargo for this port.

BOYS ALMOST SOLD

TOM LUCAS' HORSE.

When a man has a good horse he doesn't like to have people make fun of it. Yesterday somebody put a for sale sign on Tom Lucas' thoroughbred and rig as it stood outside the Hawaiian News Co.'s store. A crowd of the boys were collected and when Tom came out he found the crowd bidding for the outfit. He could hardly believe it was his rig that was being auctioned, but when he saw the sign he knew it to be true. The sale was called off and Tom squared himself with the boys after first taking the horse and tying it in front of the police station where it would be safe.

His Feet Crushed.

A laborer employed on the new brewery building had his feet badly crushed yesterday by a piece of iron falling on them. He was taken to the Queen's hospital in the patrol wagon.

The Kinau sailed with a big cargo and many passengers for Hawaii yesterday.

The many friends of J. I. McLaughlin will be glad to learn that the general Mac is again on deck after a severe illness.

A Real Pipe Dream.

Oregon wants her desert irrigated—Florida wants her muck swamps drained; why would not a pipe line between the two satisfy both, and send them down the future years rejoicing together like a honeymooning couple that never heard of divorces?—Jacksonville (Fla.), Times-Union.

Hereafter income tax will be levied in Bremen, Germany, on all whose income exceeds $225. Heretofore the limit was as low as $100.
